INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE TEXT MADE PUBLIC

Was Prepared by Hague Committee of Jurists—Elihu Root Was Member—Council of League of Nations Will Express No Opinion of Merits of Scheme at Present

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The headquarters of the league of nations today made public the text of the project for a permanent court of international justice as adopted by The Hague committee of jurists of which Elihu Root was a member, together with a letter from the council of the league to all governments which have entered the league of nations.

The council of the league in its letter to the governments says:

"The council do not propose to express any opinion on the merits of the scheme until they have had a full opportunity of considering it."

It states, however, that the project was prepared by a most competent tribunal representing widely different from the national points of view. It adds:

"The council would regard as irreconable difference of opinion on the merits of the scheme as an international misfortune of the gravest kind. It would mean that the league was publicly compelled to admit its incapacity to carry out one of the most important of the tasks which it was invited to perform.

"The failure would be great and probably irreparable, for if agreement proves impossible under circumstances apparently favorable it is hard to see how and when the task of securing it will be successfully resumed."

The council states it will later submit its recommendations to the assembly of the league of nations.

Some of the features of the proposed world court already have been summarized, they are as follows:

Summary of Features

"A permanent court of international justice, to which parties shall have direct access is hereby established in accordance with article 14 of the covenant of the league of nations. This court shall be in addition to the court of arbitration organized by The Hague conventions of 1899 and 1907 and to the special tribunals of arbitration to which states are always at liberty to submit their disputes for settlement."

Articles 2 and 3 give the membership of the court as follows:

"The permanent court of international justice shall be composed of a body of independent judges, elected regardless of their nationality, from amongst persons of high moral character who possess the qualifications required in their respective countries, for appointment to the highest judicial offices or are jurisconsults of recognized competence in international law.

Personnel of Body

"The court shall consist of fifteen members:

"Eleven judges and four deputy judges. The number of judges and deputy judges may be hereafter increased by the assembly, upon the proposal of the counsel of the league of nations to a total of fifteen judges and six deputy judges."

The manner of chosing the judges by the different national groups is provided. The members of the court are elected for nine years.

The president and the vice president of the court serve for three years. The seat of the court is established at The Hague, a session shall be held each year beginning June 15, and an extraordinary session may be called whenever necessary by the president of the court who must reside at The Hague. The full court of eleven judges shall sit, but if eleven are not available nine judges shall suffice to constitute the court. Three judges sit in chambers annually to hear and determine summary procedure.

Salaries of the court are fixed and expenses borne by the league of nations. Article 31 gives the court jurisdiction over suits between states.

Article 33 provides:

"When a dispute has arisen between states and it has been found impossible to settle it by diplomatic means, and no agreement has been made to choose another jurisdiction, the party complaining may bring the case before the court. The court shall decide whether the preceding conditions have been complied with; if so, it shall hear and determine the dispute according to the terms and within the limits of the next article."

Questions Court May Determine

"The questions which the court is competent to determine between members of the league, are given as follows:

"The interpretation of a treaty.

"Any question of international law.

"The existence of any fact which, if established, will constitute a breach of an international obligation.

"The nature or extent of reparation to be made for the breach of an international obligation.

MONEY STRINGENCY DETRIMENTAL TO STOCK INDUSTRY

J. Ogden Armour Recommends Caution in Expenditures

MONEY IS MOST EXPENSIVE COMMODITY

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 14.—J. Ogden Armour, chairman of the committee on finance of the Institute of American Meat Packers, reporting for that committee at the annual convention of the American Meat Packers' association here today, recommended caution in the matter of expenditure on the part of the packers. He urged the adoption of measures of economy and cooperation with livestock interests to assure continued adequacy of production.

"Many animals are coming to market not because they are ready, or because they promise a profit, but because of financial pressure which compels sales at a loss," declared Mr. Armour.

Continuing he said:

"A continpance of this is bound to mean lessened production. The interests of the livestock producers and the meat packers are identical and it behooves us to do what is within our power to lighten the burden which readjustment has laid upon the country.

Money Expensive Commodity

"Money is the most expensive commodity today. Those who need to borrow and most every packer has such a need, are able to get the necessary funds only by dint of persistent endeavor and by paying very high interest rates.

"This is no time for extensive expansion or for building programs designed to increase capacity. Foreign exchange merits careful watching. The fact that Europe's money is much below par is the chief obstacle to an export business which would vbe helpful to all of us.

"The effect of the present financial stringency upon the producer of livestock is of grave importance to the meat packing industry. The present prices for livestock are high as compared with pre-war figures, producers state that they are losing heavily and those of use who raise a few cattle to amuse themselves are aware that there is truth in their claims.

"Under these circumstances the livesock producers must be properly financed over the readjustment period during which prices and stocks are working toward levels which mean a proper profit for those who work."

GOVERNOR COX RAISE FIGURES TEN MILLIONS

Says Republicans are Raising Thirty Millions to Defeat Him

OPPOSITION TO LEAGUE IS POLITICAL PLOT

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 14.—A fund of from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 is being raised to defeat him, Governor Cox of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate declared today during his tour of Idaho and eastern Oregon.

The governor's statement was made in a speech at Nampa, and in response to a question from his audience asking how he expected to return conditions to normal, "when 80 per cent of the wealth is held by two per cent of the people."

Must Forget Politics

"If 80 per cent of the people will forget their politics," the governor replied, "and help me lick the two per cent that is raising a fund of from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 to beat me, we will make the government an agency for the one hundred per cent and not the two per cent."

Eight speechs, dealing mainly with the Democratic documents of peace and progress were delivered today by Governor Cox.

Disregarding his physicians' orders banning outdoor speeches, the governor delivered a string of rear platform and other open air addresses and closed his day with a speech tonight at Cody Athletic Park. His voice still was quite hoarse but he weathered another strenuous day of campaigning in good shape, he said.

At Huntington, Oregon, early today, the candidate began work and enroute here made addresses at Ontario, Weiser, Caldwell, Meridian and Nampa, Idaho.

Preaches League in Borah's Town

The league of nations was preached by the govrnor in all and was emphasized here in the home city of Senator W. E. Borah, Republican "irreconcilable" of the league.

The governor declared that the opposition of the league was a "political plot against America as well as world civilization, designed to continue 'disorder,' to increase feeling against the Wilson administration and to win the present election."

"History will write it as the most reprehensible in all time," he said.

Attacks Republican Platform

Governor Cox reiterated that the Republican platform and candidate were ambiguous and vacillating on the league issue.

"You don't know where the reactionary candidate stands because he himself don't know," the governor said, repeating that the opposition party's position was taken because Senator Borah and Senator Johnson of California threatened to bolt and form a third party.

Disarmament provisions of the league also were weighed upon by the candidate as a means of reducing taxes as well as precluding war.

"Stop building battleships," he said, "and we will use that money in the main for reclaiming arid lands."

The governor denounced making a separate peace with Germany and the "senatorial oligarchy" urging "independent, non-partisan action" in November. He flayed the Republican leaders and emphasized President Roosevelt's fight in 1912 against what, the governor said, was the "same crowd today."

In his letter, Mr. Markham said only twelve cars were held seven days on his line. CALIFORNIA WOMEN REDEEM THEMSELVES

MARION, O., Sept. 14.—Solution of the Pacific coast race problem was declared by Senator Harding in a speech here today to be imperative if the nation's future security and tranquility are to be insured.

Speaking to a party of Californians, the Republican nominee said the federal government could not afford to be unmindful of the situation raised by oriental immigration but must give its support to the far western states.

Without raising the question of racial inequality, he asserted, provision could be made to exclude aliens of any race who had shown themselves incapable of Americanization.

In the same speech, the senator replied to Democratic charges of a Republican senate oligarchy, asserting that no one complained about the exercise of congressional power except those who want to perpetuate "autocratic personal government."

He also touched on the tariff question, declaring it was possible that a long list of agricultural products might be found requiring a protective tariff levy when the problem was brought up for study and action by a Republican administration.

Nominee is Cheered

Cheers answered many of the nominee's declarations and after he had finished speaking the crowd gave three cheers for Harding.

Mrs. J. B. Hume of the California delegation, told Senator Harding that the women of her state would redeem themselves this year of "the criticism of having re-elected President Wilson because he kept us out of war."

Governor Stephens of California said Senator Hiram Johnson would go on the stump for the national ticket in the near future. He also issued a statement saying California would go Republican by 100,000.

FINISH PRIMARY CAMPAIGN NOW AWAIT DECISION

Rival Factions Bring Campaign to Spectacular Close—Campaign Continued in Loop District in Chicago Late Into Night—Fear Clash Between Police and Deputy Sheriffs

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Illinois Republicans and Democrats today closed their primary campaigns and tomorrow the voters will select party nominees for United States senator, governor, congress and approximately ninety state offices. On the Republican side the campaign just closed has been one of the most bitter in recent years with a factional fight between the forces of Governor Frank O. Lowden and Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago.

In this city, the storm center of the fight, campaigning continued up to the last hour with speakers of both sides, aided by bands, gathering street corner crowds to hear the factiontl issues expounded.

The Thompson forces introduced a novelty by installing a long line of loud speaking telephones equipped with huge horns on the loop streets. A lusty spellbinder in Thompson headquarters alternated with a phonograph in regaling passersby for blocks, the one with campaign argument and the other with the latest music.

The Rival Tickets.

Governor Lowden is backing a complete state ticket headed by John G. Oglesby of Elkhart, the present lieutenant governor and son of Former Governor Richard Oglesby. The Thompson organization is supporting a ticket headed by Len Small, Kankakee, formerly speaker of the house and state treasurer.

Oscar E. Carlstrom, Aledo and Edward N. Woodruff, Peoria, also are entered in the Republican gubernatorial race.

On the Democratic side former United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis and Barrett O'Hara of Chicago are contesting for the gubernatorial nomination.

Factions May Clash.

Election officers estimated that approximately 475,000 votes would be cast in Cook county about half the number registered. Elaborate precautions have been taken to prevent election frauds. A clash has threatened to develop between the rival Republican forces because Sheriff Charles Peters, a Lowden adherent has sworn in several thousand deputies to police the polls. Orders issued by Chief of Police Garrity to special details of patrolmen, assigned to similar service have been interpreted to mean that the police are to arrest any deputy sheriffs carrying weapons.

In Cook county, the Republican fight has been almost obscured by the battle on the head of the ticket. On the Democratic side, however, there are several warm contests.

SENATOR BORAH MAKES ADDRESS IN COX'S HOME

Standard Set Up by League is All Wrong

PEOPLE WILL NEVER SUBSCRIBE TO IT

DAYTON, Ohio, Sept. 14.—Asserting that if elected, Governor Cox, "will scrap the policies of Washington and Monroe," Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, in a speech in Governor Cox's home city tonight, declared the issue between Harding and Cox clear out.

"Both candidates may be for all I know in favor of some kind of a league, but as to the basis on which that league, if we are to have one, is to rest there is a fundamental and irreconcilable difference,' Senator Borah declared.

Present League Ineffective.

"The present league of nations would be ineffective without Articles X and XI," Borah said, and Cox has shown that he is in full accord with President Wilson in the view that Article X should be retained unchanged.

"Senator Harding has declared his unalterable opposition to Article X, declaring it represents not justice but force, not liberty but oppression, not peace but war" the Idaho senator declared, "while we know Governor Cox will use his great powers as president to see that the contract coverd in Articles X and XI are made binding, the whole nation to use, if necessary all our wealth and man power in guaranteeing the territorial integrity og all other members of the league."

Standard All Wrong.

"The standard set up in this league is all wrong," Borah declared. "Democracies will never subscribe to it. The people never will accept it.

"No scheme of peace will ever be worthy of a people's confidence which does not place the power of peace or war in the hands of those who pay taxes and fight the battles,' Borah said. "If I had my way about it," he continued, "I would write into the constitution of the United States a provision that no war should ever be begun by our country except in absolute defense against invasion or actual attack, unless the question had been submitted to a vote of the people."

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The headquarters of the league of nations today made public the text of the project for a permanent court of international justice as adopted by The Hague committee of jurists of which Elihu Root was a member, together with a letter from the council of the league to all governments which have entered the league of nations.

The council of the league in its letter to the governments says:

"The council do not propose to express any opinion on the merits of the scheme until they have had a full opportunity of considering it."

It states, however, that the project was prepared by a most competent tribunal representing widely different from the national points of view. It adds:

"The council would regard as irreconable difference of opinion on the merits of the scheme as an international misfortune of the gravest kind. It would mean that the league was publicly compelled to admit its incapacity to carry out one of the most important of the tasks which it was invited to perform.

"The failure would be great and probably irreparable, for if agreement proves impossible under circumstances apparently favorable it is hard to see how and when the task of securing it will be successfully resumed."

The council states it will later submit its recommendations to the assembly of the league of nations.

Some of the features of the proposed world court already have been summarized, they are as follows:

Summary of Features

"A permanent court of international justice, to which parties shall have direct access is hereby established in accordance with article 14 of the covenant of the league of nations. This court shall be in addition to the court of arbitration organized by The Hague conventions of 1899 and 1907 and to the special tribunals of arbitration to which states are always at liberty to submit their disputes for settlement."

Articles 2 and 3 give the membership of the court as follows:

"The permanent court of international justice shall be composed of a body of independent judges, elected regardless of their nationality, from amongst persons of high moral character who possess the qualifications required in their respective countries, for appointment to the highest judicial offices or are jurisconsults of recognized competence in international law.

Personnel of Body

"The court shall consist of fifteen members:

"Eleven judges and four deputy judges. The number of judges and deputy judges may be hereafter increased by the assembly, upon the proposal of the counsel of the league of nations to a total of fifteen judges and six deputy judges."

The manner of chosing the judges by the different national groups is provided. The members of the court are elected for nine years.

The president and the vice president of the court serve for three years. The seat of the court is established at The Hague, a session shall be held each year beginning June 15, and an extraordinary session may be called whenever necessary by the president of the court who must reside at The Hague. The full court of eleven judges shall sit, but if eleven are not available nine judges shall suffice to constitute the court. Three judges sit in chambers annually to hear and determine summary procedure.

Salaries of the court are fixed and expenses borne by the league of nations. Article 31 gives the court jurisdiction over suits between states.

Article 33 provides:

"When a dispute has arisen between states and it has been found impossible to settle it by diplomatic means, and no agreement has been made to choose another jurisdiction, the party complaining may bring the case before the court. The court shall decide whether the preceding conditions have been complied with; if so, it shall hear and determine the dispute according to the terms and within the limits of the next article."

Questions Court May Determine

"The questions which the court is competent to determine between members of the league, are given as follows:

"The interpretation of a treaty.

"Any question of international law.

"The existence of any fact which, if established, will constitute a breach of an international obligation.

"The nature or extent of reparation to be made for the breach of an international obligation.

MONEY STRINGENCY DETRIMENTAL TO STOCK INDUSTRY

J. Ogden Armour Recommends Caution in Expenditures

MONEY IS MOST EXPENSIVE COMMODITY

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 14.—J. Ogden Armour, chairman of the committee on finance of the Institute of American Meat Packers, reporting for that committee at the annual convention of the American Meat Packers' association here today, recommended caution in the matter of expenditure on the part of the packers. He urged the adoption of measures of economy and cooperation with livestock interests to assure continued adequacy of production.

"Many animals are coming to market not because they are ready, or because they promise a profit, but because of financial pressure which compels sales at a loss," declared Mr. Armour.

Continuing he said:

"A continpance of this is bound to mean lessened production. The interests of the livestock producers and the meat packers are identical and it behooves us to do what is within our power to lighten the burden which readjustment has laid upon the country.

Money Expensive Commodity

"Money is the most expensive commodity today. Those who need to borrow and most every packer has such a need, are able to get the necessary funds only by dint of persistent endeavor and by paying very high interest rates.

"This is no time for extensive expansion or for building programs designed to increase capacity. Foreign exchange merits careful watching. The fact that Europe's money is much below par is the chief obstacle to an export business which would vbe helpful to all of us.

"The effect of the present financial stringency upon the producer of livestock is of grave importance to the meat packing industry. The present prices for livestock are high as compared with pre-war figures, producers state that they are losing heavily and those of use who raise a few cattle to amuse themselves are aware that there is truth in their claims.

"Under these circumstances the livesock producers must be properly financed over the readjustment period during which prices and stocks are working toward levels which mean a proper profit for those who work."

GOVERNOR COX RAISE FIGURES TEN MILLIONS

Says Republicans are Raising Thirty Millions to Defeat Him

OPPOSITION TO LEAGUE IS POLITICAL PLOT

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 14.—A fund of from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 is being raised to defeat him, Governor Cox of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate declared today during his tour of Idaho and eastern Oregon.

The governor's statement was made in a speech at Nampa, and in response to a question from his audience asking how he expected to return conditions to normal, "when 80 per cent of the wealth is held by two per cent of the people."

Must Forget Politics

"If 80 per cent of the people will forget their politics," the governor replied, "and help me lick the two per cent that is raising a fund of from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 to beat me, we will make the government an agency for the one hundred per cent and not the two per cent."

Eight speechs, dealing mainly with the Democratic documents of peace and progress were delivered today by Governor Cox.

Disregarding his physicians' orders banning outdoor speeches, the governor delivered a string of rear platform and other open air addresses and closed his day with a speech tonight at Cody Athletic Park. His voice still was quite hoarse but he weathered another strenuous day of campaigning in good shape, he said.

At Huntington, Oregon, early today, the candidate began work and enroute here made addresses at Ontario, Weiser, Caldwell, Meridian and Nampa, Idaho.

Preaches League in Borah's Town

The league of nations was preached by the govrnor in all and was emphasized here in the home city of Senator W. E. Borah, Republican "irrecomcilable" of the league.

The governor declared that the opposition of the league was a "political plot against America as well as world civilization, designed to continue 'disorder,' to increase feeling against the Wilson administration and to win the present election."

"History will write it as the most reprehensible in all time," he said.

Attacks Republican Platform

Governor Cox reiterated that the Republican platform and candidate were ambiguous and vacillating on the league issue.

"You don't know where the reactionary candidate stands because he himself don't know," the governor said, repeating that the opposition party's position was taken because Senator Borah and Senator Johnson of California threatened to bolt and form a third party.

Disarmament provisions of the league also were weighed upon by the candidate as a means of reducing taxes as well as precluding war.

"Stop building battleships," he said, "and we will use that money in the main for reclaiming arid lands."

The governor denounced making a separate peace with Germany and the "senatorial oligarchy" urging "independent, non-partisan action" in November. He flayed the Republican leaders and emphasized President Roosevelt's fight in 1912 against what, the governor said, was the "same crowd today."

Maguire, of St. Viators college, Illinois, speaking before the National Conference of Catholic societies. The dime novel of a generation ago, the speaker said, was infinitely less harmful than the modern movie "thrillers."

ILLINOIS CENTRAL OFFICIAL DENIES THOMPSON CHARGES

Says That There is an Actual Car Shortage in Illinois

DOES NOT QUESTION THOMPSON'S SINCERITY

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—President C. H. Markham of the Illinois Central railroad tonight made public a letter to O. O. Thompson, secretary of the Illinois Agricultural association, denying the latter's recent charges that there is no actual shortage of freight cars in Illinois.

Mr. Thompson said there were 9,294 cars delayed for seven days or longer in Illinois and that 66 were on Illinois Central tracks.

In his letter, Mr. Markham said only twelve cars were held seven days on his line. Six of these were delayed thru failure of shippers to handle shipments promptly, two were held at centralized points to aid in stock shipping, two were detained because they were unfit for grain loading and there was a temporary surplus in their section and two were held for loading, unloading and assignment.

Mr. Markham said he does not question the sincerity or integrity of Mr. Thompson or his investigators but it is evident that many mistakes were made in the check up on which Mr. Thompson's statement was based.

SISTER OF LORD MAYOR MAKES AN APPEAL TO AMERICA

Wants Economic Pressure Brought to Bear on England

NO CHANGE IN GOVERNMENT ATTITUDE

LONDON, Sept. 14.—"The lord mayor's condition is unchanged," says the bulletin issued tonight by the Irish self-determination league dealing with Lord Mayor Terence MacSwiney of Cork, who is on a hunger strike in Brixton prison.

Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of the lord mayor, tonight sent the American newspaper correspondents' a message to the American people" in which she asks:

"Can the American people not force their government to act in the name of humanity and civilization?"

"If England does not at once release the lord mayor of Cork and his comrades," says Miss MacSwiney's message, "let Amercia see to it that the money England owes America is called in and let American investors withdraw support from English investments. We do not ask you to go to war with England we don'task you to act at once before it is too late by exercising economic pressure."

After a cabinet meeting held today it was stated that the government's attitude regarding the Lord Mayor MacSwiney had undergone no change.

McIntire, his Democratic opponent for governor. With returns missing from only five towns and five plantations which cast an aggregate vote of 300 four years ago, the vote was:

Parkhurst—135,745.

Returns received during the day also served to increase the margins by which the four Republican candidates for congress carried their districts.

PACIFIC COAST RACE PROBLEM MUST BE SOLVED

Imperative to Future Security of Nation Harding Says

CALIFORNIA WOMEN REDEEM THEMSELVES

MARION, O., Sept. 14.—Solution of the Pacific coast race problem was declared by Senator Harding in a speech here today to be imperative if the nation's future security and tranquility are to be insured.

Speaking to a party of Californians, the Republican nominee said the federal government could not afford to be unmindful of the situation raised by oriental immigration but must give its support to the far western states.

Without raising the question of racial inequality, he asserted, provision could be made to exclude aliens of any race who had shown themselves incapable of Americanization.

In the same speech, the senator replied to Democratic charges of a Republican senate oligarchy, asserting that no one complained about the exercise of congressional power except those who want to perpetuate "autocratic personal government."

He also touched on the tariff question, declaring it was possible that a long list of agricultural products might be found requiring a protective tariff levy when the problem was brought up for study and action by a Republican administration.

Nominee is Cheered

Cheers answered many of the nominee's declarations and after he had finished speaking the crowd gave three cheers for Harding.

Mrs. J. B. Hume of the California delegation, told Senator Harding that the women of her state would redeem themselves this year of "the criticism of having re-elected President Wilson because he kept us out of war."

Governor Stephens of California said Senator Hiram Johnson would go on the stump for the national ticket in the near future. He also issued a statement saying California would go Republican by 100,000.

Among other caliers today was David Jayne Hill of New York, former ambassador to Germany and a delegate to the second Hague peace conference. He expressed gratification at the stand taken by Senator Harding on the league of nations and declared European nations were ready to accept a world peace plan such as the nominee had outlined.

Thomas leaves a bride of four days.

FINISH PRIMARY CAMPAIGN NOW AWAIT DECISION

Rival Factions Bring Campaign to Spectacular Close—Campaign Continued in Loop District in Chicago Late Into Night—Fear Clash Between Police and Deputy Sheriffs

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Illinois Republicans and Democrats today closed their primary campaigns and tomorrow the voters will select party nominees for United States senator, governor, congress and approximately ninety state offices. On the Republican side the campaign just closed has been one of the most bitter in recent years with a factional fight between the forces of Governor Frank O. Lowden and Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago.

In this city, the storm center of the fight, campaigning continued up to the last hour with speakers of both sides, aided by bands, gathering street corner crowds to hear the factiontl issues expounded.

The Thompson forces introduced a novelty by installing a long line of loud speaking telephones equipped with huge horns on the loop streets. A lusty spellbinder in Thompson headquarters alternated with a phonograph in regaling passersby for blocks, the one with campaign argument and the other with the latest music.

The Rival Tickets.

Governor Lowden is backing a complete state ticket headed by John G. Oglesby of Elkhart, the present lieutenant governor and son of Former Governor Richard Oglesby. The Thompson organization is supporting a ticket headed by Len Small, Kankakee, formerly speaker of the house and state treasurer.

Oscar E. Carlstrom, Aledo and Edward N. Woodruff, Peoria, also are entered in the Republican gubernatorial race.

On the Democratic side former United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis and Barrett O'Hara of Chicago are contesting for the gubernatorial nomination.

Factions May Clash.

Election officers estimated that approximately 475,000 votes would be cast in Cook county about half the number registered. Elaborate precautions have been taken to prevent election frauds. A clash has threatened to develop between the rival Republican forces because Sheriff Charles Peters, a Lowden adherent has sworn in several thousand deputies to police the polls. Orders issued by Chief of Police Garrity to special details of patrolmen, assigned to similar service have been interpreted to mean that the police are to arrest any deputy sheriffs carrying weapons.

In Cook county, the Republican fight has been almost obscured by the batile on the head of the ticket. On the Democratic side, however, there are several warm contests.

SENATOR BORAH MAKES ADDRESS IN COX'S HOME

Standard Set Up by League is All Wrong

PEOPLE WILL NEVER SUBSCRIBE TO IT

DAYTON, Ohio, Sept. 14.—Asserting that if elected, Governor Cox, "will scrap the policies of Washington and Monroe," Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, in a speech in Governor Cox's home city tonight, declared the issue between Harding and Cox clear out.

"Both candidates may be for all I know in favor of some kind of a league, but as to the basis on which that league, if we are to have one, is to rest there is a fundamental and irreconcilable difference,' Senator Borah declared.

Present League Ineffective.

"The present league of nations would be ineffective without Articles X and XI," Borah said, and Cox has shown that he is in full accord with President Wilson in the view that Article X should be retained unchanged.

"Senator Harding has declared his unalterable opposition to Article X, declaring it represents not justice but force, not liberty but oppression, not peace but war" the Idaho senator declared, "while we know Governor Cox will use his great powers as president to see that the contract coverd in Articles X and XI are made binding, the whole nation to use, if necessary all our wealth and man power in guaranteeing the territorial integrity og all other members of the league."

Standard All Wrong.

"The standard set up in this league is all wrong," Borah declared. "Democracies will never subscribe to it. The people never will accept it.

"No scheme of peace will ever be worthy of a people's confidence which does not place the power of peace or war in the hands of those who pay taxes and fight the battles,' Borah said. "If I had my way about it," he continued, "I would write into the constitution of the United States a provision that no war should ever be begun by our country except in absolute defense against invasion or actual attack, unless the question had been submitted to a vote of the people."

MAINE RESULT POINTS TO DEFEAT OF COX

Congressman Fess Predicts He Will Be Worst Beaten man In History of Elections—Says Ohio Will Follow Maine's Example.

New York, Sept. 14.—Basing his estimate on results on the Maine election yesterday, Representative Simeon D. Fess of Ohio, chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee today predicted that the general election would return to congress a Republican majority in the senate of at least ten and in the house at least 53.

Mr. Fess compared yesterday's Maine vote with that of the 1896 election. He said:

"The result in Maine points to Cox as the worst beaten man in the history of elections. His style of campaigning indicated his own fears, as well as the inevitable results of the methods employed. Ohio this year will follow the Maine lead as she did in 1896."

A newspaper headline yesterday said "Stocks slow as investors await Maine result." Certainly there should have been some speeding up in the market yesterday for the final figures from the New England state will show a majority of more than 70,000 for the Republican ticket, the greatest on record.

They have just found two and a half million dollars in the treasury of the internal revenue department in Chicago, more than the records account for. This should go down in history as the most unusual event on record in revenue history. Some deficits of a million or two have been found in the past but never such an unaccounted for surplus.

Somebody must have forgotten to enter up all the income tax receipts.

Governor Cox finds greater relish in ferreting around in the political organization of the Republican party than he does in affairs of state. Thus it would be if he were to assume the presidency. President Cox would be forever smelling about to detect some advantage that he suspected the Republicans were trying to put over his own party, rather than devoting himself to discovering what European nations were trying to put over the United States.

The only way to reduce taxes is first to reduce expenditures. If money is spent, there must be taxes raised to corresponding degree. The Republican congress cut two and a half billion dollars out of the estimates of the Democratic administration, and threby laid the foundation for a corresponding cut in taxes. To the Republicans belongs the credit for tangible results in tax reduction.

If an accurate record were kept it would certainly show at least 25 or 30 tourist automobile parties passing thru Jacksonville every day. A decided increase in the number of tourists has come now that the busy season on farms is here. And higher interstate railroad rates have also given some impetus to automobile travel. The greater the number of visitors the better for the city and the local business organization should do something to make these visitors welcome. They are accorded camping space at Nichols park but with a concerted effort other courtesies could be extended which would be mutually profitable.

A TRIBUTE TO CONGRESS.

Expressing confidence in the American form of government, the Republican Publicity association takes the New York "World" to task for calling congress a "Soviet of country lawyers."

"Deep in the slough of despondency, the New York World bewails what it apparently deems the failure of popular government. 'The congress of the United States has been called a Soviet of lawyers. It could be more precisely described as a soviet of country lawyers—lawyers of the prosecuting attorney type who have finally realized their ambition to get to Washington. This applies to the senate as much as to the house.' Then the 'World' proceeds to quote what it calls an 'illuminating criticism of the government of the United States' by Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic candidate for vice president.

"Fortunately, however, the Republicans, and, we believe most Democrats, do not share the pessimism of the 'World' and its candidates. Republicans sometimes criticise the administration but they do not, as the 'World' says of Mr. Roosevelt, criticise the government. Neither do Republicans speak of congress as a soviet of country lawyers, using the words as terms of contempt. The Republican party believes that the founders of the American form of government were wise in establishing a legislative branch composed of two houses, vesting in the legislative branch the sole power to levy taxes, declare war and confirm peace. The Republican party believes that the founders of the government acted wisely in providing for popular election of congressmen and that the people also acted wisely in amending the constitution by providing for popular election of senators. The Republican party further believes that the people can be trusted to elect their representatives and that they have done fairly well in the exercise of that power. The Republican party believes that it is not only bad patriotism but bad morals to seek to arouse in the minds of the people contempt and suspicion for that branch of the government which has been and still is the guardian of liberty.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

ORGANIZATION

The merchant princes, nowadays, keep tab on all the N. G. jays. There comes to Pruneville-in-the-Vale a stranger, J. Adolphus Kale. He's no apologetic runt; he puts up quite a gorgeous front; he talks as though he owned a mine that turned out gold or rubies fine. In olden times this sort of bluff was really quite artistic stuff. But now when J. Adolphus goes to stores that deal in furbelows, and says, "I've come to settle down in this, your enterprising town, and need three miles of barb wire fence, which I will pay for three weeks hence," the dealer sighs and says, "By Jones, I fear you'll have to show the bones before you pack that wire away—you're not renowned as first class pay." Then J. Adolphus leaves the store and kicks himself until he's sore. The Pruneville merchants, when they found the gay Adolphus on the ground, inquired of Mudtown-on-the-Pike, what this Adolphus gent was like, and Mudtown said, "If he's your guest, nail down all things and guard the rest." Thus, nowadays, our records go from town to town, and all men know if we are classed as "good as wheat", or listed 'neath the head of "Beat."

OLD JACKSONVILLE

"OLD ILLINOIS"

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

Oct. 5th, 1857, a little boy—newcomer from Perry, Pike county—entered "Miss Chenery's room" at the West Jacksonville District School.

Among the books he bought that Monday, the boy got

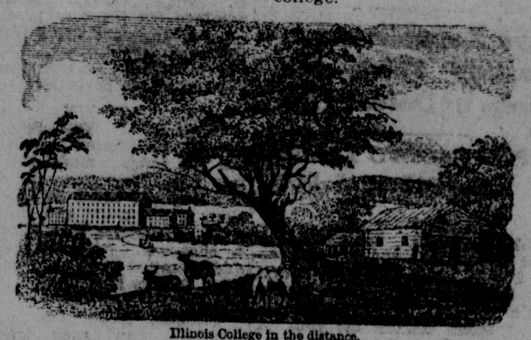
which also had an accompanying Atlas.

Among numerous illustrations was this of "Illinois College in the distance.



Illinois College in the distance.

It was the picture accompanying the text describing

and the description read as follow:

1. Illinois has the Mississippi for its western boundary for a distance of 500 miles. It is one of the most fertile states in the Union.

2. A small tract in the southern part is hilly, but the surface of the state is generally level; about two-thirds of it being prairie. Agriculture is the chief employment. The principal products are corn, wheat and tobacco. Cattle, horses and swine abound.

3. The chief minerals are lead and coal. The lead mines around Galena, with those of the adjoining state of Wisconsin, are among the richest in the world. Coal is abundant in nearly all parts of the state.

4. The railroads of this state are numerous and important. The Illinois Canal connects the lakes and the Mississippi river.

5. Chicago, at the head of lake navigation, is the largest place in Illinois. It is the center of an extensive and growing trade, and one of the most flourishing cities of the West. (Pop. 1850, 29,963).

6. Springfield, the capital, is situated on a beautiful prairie, near the center of the state. It is connected by railroad with Naples upon the Illinois river, and with Alton, on the Mississippi.

7. Galena, in the northern part of the state, Alton and Quincy upon the Mississippi river, Peoria beautifully situated upon the Illinois, and Waukegan on Lake Michigan, are important places. At Jacksonville, in the central part of the state, is Illinois college."

Then follow map questions on Illinois.

This Geography

was written by S. Augustus Mitchell, and published in Philadelphia by H. Cowperthwaite and Co., 1856. But the note regarding its being "entered by Act of Congress" was in the year 1852. It is understood that new editions of these textbooks were more or less brought up to date of issue.

The volume here referred to was of 336 pages, and the Atlas had 32 maps. It is questionable whether newer geographies are more useful.

The foreground of the view of the college was a stumper even to early settlers, as to where the artist got his details. As, for instance, the wide spreading tree, or the large house on the right. Perhaps the latter was intended to represent Gov. Duncan's "seat".

The large College building was burned in December, 1852. But, "Beecher Hall" was there then, in the back ground; and everybody here knows it is still standing.

The geography of 1857 lies before the writer of this sketch, but the Atlas has disappeared. As the last paragraphs were written the fire engine went to the burning of "Sturtevant Hall."

STATE STREET CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Woman's Missionary society of State street church met in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon.

The pastor, Rev. W. H. Marbach, addressed the meeting on "The Missionary Outlook of the World in the Light of the Present War." He said "What is needed most today is the missionary movement of peace and good will breaking over race and national barriers. The Jago Shampoo, one of the leading newspapers of Japan spoke of this, advocating the sending of priests and missionaries to Korea.

The Japanese cannot thank the Christian missionaries too much for the admirable leaven that he introduced into the relations with foreigners, nor can they do better than follow the example that he has set, in their own intercourse with the Korean." This from a leading newspaper of Japan. After the meeting light refreshments were served.

We are prepared to show you a wonderful line of ladies coats, suits, skirts, dresses and millinery that cannot be excelled for price and quality anywhere.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Kopperl at Home After Six Weeks Absence.

After an absence of more than a month in the east, Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Kopperl have returned to Jacksonville. They were members of a party of Illinois Life Insurance Co., representatives who were entitled to the eastern trip because of business written during the year. After leaving Boston Dr. and Mrs. Kopperl drove along the Maine coast to Brunswick, where they spent a number of days. The return journey took them thru the Berkshire hills and the White and Allegheny mountain country. Several weeks were spent in visiting places of historic or present day interest, and the whole stay in the east was greatly enjoyed.

Dr. and Mrs. Kopperl drove thru to Jacksonville and in almost every state found satisfactory road conditions.

A newspaper headline yesterday said "Stocks slow as investors await Maine result." Certainly there should have been some speeding up in the market yesterday for the final figures from the New England state will show a majority of more than 70,000 for the Republican ticket, the greatest on record.

They have just found two and a half million dollars in the treasury of the internal revenue department in Chicago, more than the records account for. This should go down in history as the most unusual event on record in revenue history. Some deficits of a million or two have been found in the past but never such an unaccounted for surplus.

Somebody must have forgotten to enter up all the income tax receipts.

Governor Cox finds greater relish in ferreting around in the political organization of the Republican party than he does in affairs of state. Thus it would be if he were to assume the presidency. President Cox would be forever smelling about to detect some advantage that he suspected the Republicans were trying to put over his own party, rather than devoting himself to discovering what European nations were trying to put over the United States.

The only way to reduce taxes is first to reduce expenditures. If money is spent, there must be taxes raised to corresponding degree. The Republican congress cut two and a half billion dollars out of the estimates of the Democratic administration, and threby laid the foundation for a corresponding cut in taxes. To the Republicans belongs the credit for tangible results in tax reduction.

If an accurate record were kept it would certainly show at least 25 or 30 tourist automobile parties passing thru Jacksonville every day. A decided increase in the number of tourists has come now that the busy season on farms is here. And higher interstate railroad rates have also given some impetus to automobile travel. The greater the number of visitors the better for the city and the local business organization should do something to make these visitors welcome. They are accorded camping space at Nichols park but with a concerted effort other courtesies could be extended which would be mutually profitable.

A TRIBUTE TO CONGRESS.

Expressing confidence in the American form of government, the Republican Publicity association takes the New York "World" to task for calling congress a "Soviet of country lawyers."

"Deep in the slough of despondency, the New York World bewails what it apparently deems the failure of popular government. 'The congress of the United States has been called a Soviet of lawyers. It could be more precisely described as a soviet of country lawyers—lawyers of the prosecuting attorney type who have finally realized their ambition to get to Washington. This applies to the senate as much as to the house.' Then the 'World' proceeds to quote what it calls an 'illuminating criticism of the government of the United States' by Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic candidate for vice president.

"Fortunately, however, the Republicans, and, we believe most Democrats, do not share the pessimism of the 'World' and its candidates. Republicans sometimes criticise the administration but they do not, as the 'World' says of Mr. Roosevelt, criticise the government. Neither do Republicans speak of congress as a soviet of country lawyers, using the words as terms of contempt. The Republican party believes that the founders of the American form of government were wise in establishing a legislative branch composed of two houses, vesting in the legislative branch the sole power to levy taxes, declare war and confirm peace. The Republican party believes that the founders of the government acted wisely in providing for popular election of congressmen and that the people also acted wisely in amending the constitution by providing for popular election of senators. The Republican party further believes that the people can be trusted to elect their representatives and that they have done fairly well in the exercise of that power. The Republican party believes that it is not only bad patriotism but bad morals to seek to arouse in the minds of the people contempt and suspicion for that branch of the government which has been and still is the guardian of liberty.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

"OLD ILLINOIS"

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

Oct. 5th, 1857, a little boy—newcomer from Perry, Pike county—entered "Miss Chenery's room" at the West Jacksonville District School.

Among the books he bought that Monday, the boy got

Mitchell's School Geography

which also had an accompanying Atlas.

Among numerous illustrations was this of "Illinois College in the distance.

Illinois College in the distance.

It was the picture accompanying the text describing

and the description read as follow:

1. Illinois has the Mississippi for its western boundary for a distance of 500 miles. It is one of the most fertile states in the Union.

2. A small tract in the southern part is hilly, but the surface of the state is generally level; about two-thirds of it being prairie. Agriculture is the chief employment. The principal products are corn, wheat and tobacco. Cattle, horses and swine abound.

3. The chief minerals are lead and coal. The lead mines around Galena, with those of the adjoining state of Wisconsin, are among the richest in the world. Coal is abundant in nearly all parts of the state.

4. The railroads of this state are numerous and important. The Illinois Canal connects the lakes and the Mississippi river.

5. Chicago, at the head of lake navigation, is the largest place in Illinois. It is the center of an extensive and growing trade, and one of the most flourishing cities of the West. (Pop. 1850, 29,963).

6. Springfield, the capital, is situated on a beautiful prairie, near the center of the state. It is connected by railroad with Naples upon the Illinois river, and with Alton, on the Mississippi.

7. Galena, in the northern part of the state, Alton and Quincy upon the Mississippi river, Peoria beautifully situated upon the Illinois, and Waukegan on Lake Michigan, are important places. At Jacksonville, in the central part of the state, is Illinois college."

Then follow map questions on Illinois.

This Geography

was written by S. Augustus Mitchell, and published in Philadelphia by H. Cowperthwaite and Co., 1856. But the note regarding its being "entered by Act of Congress" was in the year 1852. It is understood that new editions of these textbooks were more or less brought up to date of issue.

The volume here referred to was of 336 pages, and the Atlas had 32 maps. It is questionable whether newer geographies are more useful.

The foreground of the view of the college was a stumper even to early settlers, as to where the artist got his details. As, for instance, the wide spreading tree, or the large house on the right. Perhaps the latter was intended to represent Gov. Duncan's "seat".

The large College building was burned in December, 1852. But, "Beecher Hall" was there then, in the back ground; and everybody here knows it is still standing.

The geography of 1857 lies before the writer of this sketch, but the Atlas has disappeared. As the last paragraphs were written the fire engine went to the burning of "Sturtevant Hall."

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

ORGANIZATION

The merchant princes, nowadays, keep tab on all the N. G. jays. There comes to Pruneville-in-the-Vale a stranger, J. Adolphus Kale. He's no apologetic runt; he puts up quite a gorgeous front; he talks as though he owned a mine that turned out gold or rubies fine. In olden times this sort of bluff was really quite artistic stuff. But now when J. Adolphus goes to stores that deal in furbelows, and says, "I've come to settle down in this, your enterprising town, and need three miles of barb wire fence, which I will pay for three weeks hence," the dealer sighs and says, "By Jones, I fear you'll have to show the bones before you pack that wire away—you're not renowned as first class pay." Then J. Adolphus leaves the store and kicks himself until he's sore. The Pruneville merchants, when they found the gay Adolphus on the ground, inquired of Mudtown-on-the-Pike, what this Adolphus gent was like, and Mudtown said, "If he's your guest, nail down all things and guard the rest." Thus, nowadays, our records go from town to town, and all men know if we are classed as "good as wheat", or listed 'neath the head of "Beat."

Some Like a Cold Bath Others Like a Hot One

But to enjoy any kind of a bath the room must be comfortably warm. There are many mornings and evenings during the fall when a little heat is welcome. At such times the Electric Radiator is appreciated.

Any cool corner can quickly be made warm and comfortable. There is a total absence of flame and the smoke, smell and danger which often go with the flame type of heater. You will save coal if you get one early.

MARKED BALLOT IS SENT THRU MAILS

Combination of Tickets is Suggested—Looks Like Unfriendly Action Toward Andrew Russel.

One of the eleventh hour campaign activities was the sending thru the mails of a combination slate ballot with a special cross in front of the name of Andrew Russel as candidate for state auditor. Some of the candidates indicated on this ticket were selected from the Thompson-Small group and other candidates from the Lowden-Oglesby forces. Mr. Russel had the matter called to his attention and sent telegrams to Chicago and St. Louis papers, stating that this action was evidently taken by someone unfriendly to him and with the evident purpose of injuring his candidacy.

These ballots were sent broadcast thruout the twentieth congressional district. Mr. Russel authorized the following statement for publication in the papers that made inquiry with reference to this matter:

"A combination slate ballot with a cross in front of Andrew Russel's name has been mailed from Jacksonville, Illinois, to the voters in the Twentieth Congressional District.

"This was evidently done by somebody unfriendly to Andrew Russel with the object and hope of injuring his candidacy with the Oglesby people. Mr. Russel is running on the McKinley-Oglesby ticket."

ABOUT STURTEVANT HALL

Mr. William Epler writes to a friend as follows:

Lake Charles, La.,
Aug. 30th, 1920.

Yes, there is a warm place in my affections for Old Illinois College. Whatever affects her, for good or bad, arouses my interest. This time it is Old Sturtevant Hall that has met with misfortune—and as you say, it is a pity it occurred in these strenuous days—Some tinner must have been at work on the roof, or perhaps, Jove sent a bolt of lightning, only to show how helpless we mortals are. Certainly, no vicious person could have applied the torch—or was it by a modern crank, who like the ancient crank (Herostratus who fired the Ephisian Temple, that his name might become immortal?

It makes no difference how it was done, it is done, and we regret it excediengly, and we thank you for giving us the information to promptly. Old Illinois College will look one sided without old Sturtevant Hall. I speak advisedly, for to me a real old timer, College Hill, without Old Beecher Hall, could not be College Hill at all.

When I attended College in 1853-6, there was nothing on the Hill, besides, what was left of the old Dormitory, (the south wing) by the fire of Christmas, 1852, and Beecher's Hall. Yes, there was a small two story frame house, known as the Prof. Catlin House, standing about twenty steps south of Beecher Hall, in which I roomed and professed to study. We took our meals in the basement of the old south Dormitory wing, left by the fire of 1852, and it was at a very excellent table at which we sat. Sturtevant Hall was erected in 1856, that tower was regarded as a wonder by the fellows just from the hazel brush and thickets of the surrounding country. Now don't laugh, many of those fellows on emerging from college, lived to do honor to themselves, to the College and to the state.

A larger enrollment than ever is in prospect for the Conservatory. The strong faculty which has brought such pronounced success to the school in recent years will continue to provide instruction. Courses offered in piano, organ, voice, violin, cello, theory and public school music. Free op-

JOHN DEERE Portable Elevator!

HALL BROS.
Power & Horse Drawn
Farm Machenry

In the John Deere line of modern farm machinery the John Deere Portable Grain Elevator stands out prominently as a time and labor saver.

Its value on the farm is particularly emphasized right now because of the high price and scarcity of farm help.

It elevates without waste or hard labor the biggest load of small grain or ear corn in from three to six minutes' time—a saving of twenty to thirty minutes on every load.

Built of steel thruout, it will not warp or decay—its lasting qualities appeal to the careful buyer.

To Fence Users—We are glad to have this opportunity to bring to your attention the new Improved American Fence Post declared to be the most perfect fence post ever made.

Some Like a Cold Bath Others Like a Hot One

But to enjoy any kind of a bath the room must be comfortably warm. There are many mornings and evenings during the fall when a little heat is welcome. At such times the Electric Radiator is appreciated.

Any cool corner can quickly be made warm and comfortable. There is a total absence of flame and the smoke, smell and danger which often go with the flame type of heater. You will save coal if you get one early.

ABOUT STURTEVANT HALL

Mr. William Epler writes to a friend as follows:

Lake Charles, La.,
Aug. 30th, 1920.

Yes, there is a warm place in my affections for Old Illinois College. Whatever affects her, for good or bad, arouses my interest. This time it is Old Sturtevant Hall that has met with misfortune—and as you say, it is a pity it occurred in these strenuous days—Some tinner must have been at work on the roof, or perhaps, Jove sent a bolt of lightning, only to show how helpless we mortals are. Certainly, no vicious person could have applied the torch—or was it by a modern crank, who like the ancient crank (Herostratus who fired the Ephisian Temple, that his name might become immortal?

It makes no difference how it was done, it is done, and we regret it excediengly, and we thank you for giving us the information to promptly. Old Illinois College will look one sided without old Sturtevant Hall. I speak advisedly, for to me a real old timer, College Hill, without Old Beecher Hall, could not be College Hill at all.

When I attended College in 1853-6, there was nothing on the Hill, besides, what was left of the old Dormitory, (the south wing) by the fire of Christmas, 1852, and Beecher's Hall. Yes, there was a small two story frame house, known as the Prof. Catlin House, standing about twenty steps south of Beecher Hall, in which I roomed and professed to study. We took our meals in the basement of the old south Dormitory wing, left by the fire of 1852, and it was at a very excellent table at which we sat. Sturtevant Hall was erected in 1856, that tower was regarded as a wonder by the fellows just from the hazel brush and thickets of the surrounding country. Now don't laugh, many of those fellows on emerging from college, lived to do honor to themselves, to the College and to the state.

A larger enrollment than ever is in prospect for the Conservatory. The strong faculty which has brought such pronounced success to the school in recent years will continue to provide instruction. Courses offered in piano, organ, voice, violin, cello, theory and public school music. Free op-

MARKED BALLOT IS SENT THRU MAILS

Combination of Tickets is Suggested—Looks Like Unfriendly Action Toward Andrew Russel.

One of the eleventh hour campaign activities was the sending thru the mails of a combination slate ballot with a special cross in front of the name of Andrew Russel as candidate for state auditor. Some of the candidates indicated on this ticket were selected from the Thompson-Small group and other candidates from the Lowden-Oglesby forces. Mr. Russel had the matter called to his attention and sent telegrams to Chicago and St. Louis papers, stating that this action was evidently taken by someone unfriendly to him and with the evident purpose of injuring his candidacy.

These ballots were sent broadcast thruout the twentieth congressional district. Mr. Russel authorized the following statement for publication in the papers that made inquiry with reference to this matter:

"A combination slate ballot with a cross in front of Andrew Russel's name has been mailed from Jacksonville, Illinois, to the voters in the Twentieth Congressional District.

"This was evidently done by somebody unfriendly to Andrew Russel with the object and hope of injuring his candidacy with the Oglesby people. Mr. Russel is running on the McKinley-Oglesby ticket."

Potatoes are accounted as one of the principal crops in that locality and good returns have been made this year.

Land all thru Minnesota is selling at higher prices this year than ever before and there is more activity than in the older settled states. MR. FRISCH AGAIN A LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATE

Jacob Frisch of Springfield was a visitor in Jacksonville again Tuesday, coming in the interest of his candidacy for renomination as a member of the legislature. Mr. Frisch has served two terms as a member of the lower house and is now seeking re-election on his record. During his term of office Mr. Frisch introdduced the bill for the transfer to the city of Jacksonville of the state land which formed the nucleus of the new water project. Mr. Frisch gave substantial aid to teachers of the State School for the Deaf in legislation in which they were interested.

Morgan county people have thru the years found him attentive to the interests of this county and ready at all times to give a courteous hearing to people here and to render all possibe assistance.

In a brief campaign Mr. Frisch has found it impossible o make a canvass of this county in order to personally call attention to his candidacy. He must therefore rely upon his record and the impression the people may have formed during the four years of his desire and intention to prove a worthy representative of the people.

WORK PROGRESSES ON POWER PLANT

Contractor Walbridge Thinks Plant Will Be in Use Before Year Closes.

Contractor Walbridge said yesterday that he confidently expects to have the new water and power plant in operation some time in December. This does not mean that the whole work will be completed by that time, but it does mean that sufficient progress will have been made to permit the use of the plant.

There have been some delays in the work thus far because of the difficulty of securing both labor and materials. Now, however, the plant is ready for the brick work and this will require about six weks. Some of the materials for the filtration plant have already been shipped and other things necessary for the building of the double plant are also enroute.

Engineer H. L. Caldwell and the contractor are both doing all in their power to push the work along toward completion, knowing as they do the need for the plant and the greater economy in both the water and light departments that will come when the plant is in iperation.

MRS. G. H. SANFORD DIED IN OREGON TUESDAY

Former Resident of Jacksonville Passed Away at Home of Son in Portland, Ore.—Funeral and Interment There Thursday.

S. W. Nichols received a telegram last night stating that his sister, Mrs. G. H. Sanford, passed away yesterday at the home of her son in Portland. Deceased had been ill for an extended period and her death was therefore not unexpected.

Mrs. Sanford was the daughter of Rev. Warren and Ann Maria Moddil Nichols, and was born in Quincy, August 29, 1838. The family lived in different places in Western Illinois until 1849, when they removed to central Ohio. Later they removed to southern Ohio, then to Lima in northwestern Ohio, where the father died June 8, 1852.

In November, 1864, the family removed to Jacksonville, which has since been the family home. Mrs. Sanford's grandfather was cashier of the Savings bank at Concord, New Hampshire, and his brother was at one time the governor of that state.

Mrs. Sanford was maried August 8, 1862, to Geoge H. Sanford, a medical student, who shortly after their marriage enlisted in Co. B, McLaughlin's squadron of cavalry, and served three years in a strenuous manner. After his release he joined his wife in Jacksonville and then went to Ann Arbor, Mich., where he graduated from the medical department of that place. He first settled in Franklin, this county, and went from that place to Tallula in 1870, where he practiced with great success until failing health compelled him to retire, when he removed to Jacksonville. Here he remained until his death in 1914

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Sanford went to reside with her son in Portland. She was the mother of two sons, Frederick W., professor of Latin in the state university of Nebraska, and Wilbert Hoyt of Portland, Ore., at whose home she passed away. She is also survived by three grandchildren, and one brother, S. W. Nicols, of this city. Her mother preceded her in death in February, 1871.

Mrs. Sanford was a woman of noble Christian character. She united with the church when but eight years of age and ever lived an earnest, consecrated life. She was peculiarly devoted to her family and never spared herself for their welfare. Mrs Sanford was also devoted to the cause of the church and society in general and always did her best wherever placed. She was a model mother and wife and faithful to all life's duties.

The funeral and burial will take place at Portland Thursday afternoon.

COAL PRICES AT NEW HIGH LEVELS

Local coal men, like those in all other cities, are having a difficult time to secure coal to apply on their orders. Every dealer in town is behind with orders altho every effort is being made to secure more liberal shipments from the mines. This situation is the result of the car shortage, as none of the mines are running anywhere near full capacity. In fact, the mines are averaging not more than 35 to 40 per cent of normal car supply. Coal prices were never so high here before, Springfield lump retailing at $7.25 per ton and southern district lump, usually known as Carterville, selling at $8.25 per ton.

In cities where mines are located lower prices prevail and in still other Illinois cities quotations are from $9 to $10 per ton.

George B. Kendall, county agent, returned Tuesday from Minnesota where he spent the past ten days on his farm. Mr. Kendall went at this time of the year in order to be present when the threshing work was in progress. The wheat crop in Minnesota this year is very light but returns from oats and flax have been generally satisfactory. Potatoes are accounted as one of the principal crops in that locality and good returns have been made this year.

Land all thru Minnesota is selling at higher prices this year than ever before and there is more activity than in the older settled states. Mr. Kendall visited the state fair at Minneapolis and was very much interested in seeing a mechanical shocker and some other late improvements in farm implements.

MR. FRISCH AGAIN A LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATE

Jacob Frisch of Springfield was a visitor in Jacksonville again Tuesday, coming in the interest of his candidacy for renomination as a member of the legislature. Mr. Frisch has served two terms as a member of the lower house and is now seeking re-election on his record. During his term of office Mr. Frisch introdduced the bill for the transfer to the city of Jacksonville of the state land which formed the nucleus of the new water project. Mr. Frisch gave substantial aid to teachers of the State School for the Deaf in legislation in which they were interested.

Morgan county people have thru the years found him attentive to the interests of this county and ready at all times to give a courteous hearing to people here and to render all possibe assistance.

In a brief campaign Mr. Frisch has found it impossible to make a canvass of this county in order to personally call attention to his candidacy. He must therefore rely upon his record and the impression the people may have formed during the four years of his desire and intention to prove a worthy representative of the people.

WORK PROGRESSES ON POWER PLANT

Contractor Walbridge Thinks Plant Will Be in Use Before Year Closes.

Contractor Walbridge said yesterday that he confidently expects to have the new water and power plant in operation some time in December. This does not mean that the whole work will be completed by that time, but it does mean that sufficient progress will have been made to permit the use of the plant.

There have been some delays in the work thus far because of the difficulty of securing both labor and materials. Now, however, the plant is ready for the brick work and this will require about six weks. Some of the materials for the filtration plant have already been shipped and other things necessary for the building of the double plant are also enroute.

Engineer H. L. Caldwell and the contractor are both doing all in their power to push the work along toward completion, knowing as they do the need for the plant and the greater economy in both the water and light departments that will come when the plant is in iperation.

MRS. G. H. SANFORD DIED IN OREGON TUESDAY

Former Resident of Jacksonville Passed Away at Home of Son in Portland, Ore.—Funeral and Interment There Thursday.

S. W. Nichols received a telegram last night stating that his sister, Mrs. G. H. Sanford, passed away yesterday at the home of her son in Portland. Deceased had been ill for an extended period and her death was therefore not unexpected.

Mrs. Sanford was the daughter of Rev. Warren and Ann Maria Moddil Nichols, and was born in Quincy, August 29, 1838. The family lived in different places in Western Illinois until 1849, when they removed to central Ohio. Later they removed to southern Ohio, then to Lima in northwestern Ohio, where the father died June 8, 1852.

In November, 1864, the family removed to Jacksonville, which has since been the family home. Mrs. Sanford's grandfather was cashier of the Savings bank at Concord, New Hampshire, and his brother was at one time the governor of that state.

Mrs. Sanford was maried August 8, 1862, to Geoge H. Sanford, a medical student, who shortly after their marriage enlisted in Co. B, McLaughlin's squadron of cavalry, and served three years in a strenuous manner. After his release he joined his wife in Jacksonville and then went to Ann Arbor, Mich., where he graduated from the medical department of that place. He first settled in Franklin, this county, and went from that place to Tallula in 1870, where he practiced with great success until failing health compelled him to retire, when he removed to Jacksonville. Here he remained until his death in 1914

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Sanford went to reside with her son in Portland. She was the mother of two sons, Frederick W., professor of Latin in the state university of Nebraska, and Wilbert Hoyt of Portland, Ore., at whose home she passed away. She is also survived by three grandchildren, and one brother, S. W. Nicols, of this city. Her mother preceded her in death in February, 1871.

Mrs. Sanford was a woman of noble Christian character. She united with the church when but eight years of age and ever lived an earnest, consecrated life. She was peculiarly devoted to her family and never spared herself for their welfare. Mrs Sanford was also devoted to the cause of the church and society in general and always did her best wherever placed. She was a model mother and wife and faithful to all life's duties.

The funeral and burial will take place at Portland Thursday afternoon.

COAL PRICES AT NEW HIGH LEVELS

Local coal men, like those in all other cities, are having a difficult time to secure coal to apply on their orders. Every dealer in town is behind with orders altho every effort is being made to secure more liberal shipments from the mines. This situation is the result of the car shortage, as none of the mines are running anywhere near full capacity. In fact, the mines are averaging not more than 35 to 40 per cent of normal car supply. Coal prices were never so high here before, Springfield lump retailing at $7.25 per ton and southern district lump, usually known as Carterville, selling at $8.25 per ton.

In cities where mines are located lower prices prevail and in still other Illinois cities quotations are from $9 to $10 per ton.

J. E. OSBORNE

Candidate for Republican Nomination for
COUNTY COMMISSIONER

All my life has been spent in Morgan County and the record, whatever it may be, is open to public inspection.

While now a resident of Jacksonville, because of school advantages, most of my business is conducted in Murrayville.

I am actively engaged in business and hope to keep at work for years to come. However, I can readily devote to the duties of the County Board all necessary time and am ready and willing to serve if the people believe that I can fill the office satisfactorily.

I believe in a continued effort for good roads thru draining and dragging.

A county officer should apply to county business the same interest and discretion that he applies to his private business.

MEMORIAL ADOPTED FOR A. L. FRENCH.

The following memorial of Arthur L. French was adopted by the directors of the Farmers State Bank and Trust company at the regular meeting of the board yesterday:

By the death of Arthur L. French, founder and president of this company, the directors of The Farmers State Bank and Trust company consider that not only has this bank suffered the loss of its president, but that this community has sustained the loss of one of its best and most loyal citizens. Having been intimately associated with Mr. French since the organization of this corporation, we feel that we can perhaps appreciate in greater measure the extent of that loss.

He was born on the Samuel French homestead, near Chapin, in this county, and resided thruout his whole life on the same farm. His chief interests and experiences were, accordingly, those of a farmer and of the occupations and businesses allied with farming. In these he was always alert and progressive, believing, as he did, that agriculture is one of the very foundations of our wealth and prosperity. But public affairs also elicited much of his most thoughtful attention. He was well read and informed in all matters of public interest, so that his views were highly regarded by men in public life. He performed his duties as a public officer of whatever grade, whether as railroad or warehouse commissioner of the state, as school director or as commissioner of the road district in which he lived, with the same even, dignified, unselfish care.

As president of this company, his judgments as a banker were always promptly and fearlessly given and were uniformly sound and conservative, yet he never omitted the opinions and views of his associates to which he always gave full weight and credit. He was invariably just and fair in all his personal relation and dealings with his fellow directors. Tho generally a reserved man, he made and kept many friends, who were strongly attached to him because of his unselfish interest and advice in their business and personal affairs. Many men in this community gratefully acknowledge that but for his strong support and inspiring courage at critical periods, they could not have come thru their several ways successfully. Only his immediate neighbors and most intimate friends could know of the beautiful home life of Mr. French up to the time of the death of his wife, in August 1916, and his faithful personal care for his children since that time.

We desire that the records of this board shall show our appreciation of his strength, his nobility of character, and his business ability and sound judgment, as well as the high quality of his citizenship. To that end the foregoing shall be made a matter of record.

SCIENTISTS FREE CASTOR OIL FROM NAUSEATING TASTE

Remarkable Process Improves Famous Old Family Remedy

Nobody ever dreamed that castor oil could be made tasteless. But the chemists of Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., one of the largest manufacturers of castor oil, tackled the problem and succeeded in perfecting a process by which all nauseating taste is removed. Nothing is put in to disguise the taste. Strength and purity remain the same—a 100% pure castor oil. Curative and soothing qualities remain the same. It's the same good old-fashioned castor oil that your doctor always prescribes, with the disagreeable taste removed. Children take Kellogg's Tastless Castor Oil without knowing it is castor oil. Sold by all good druggists. If you want a castor oil absolutely without nauseating taste, insist on genuine laboratory filled bottles, plainly labelled Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil. "ITS AMAZING" SAYS WABASH RAILROAD MAN

"Since My Astonishing Recovery All the Neighbors are Taking Tanlac," Declares T. W. Wright

"After suffering for twenty years and despairing of ever getting well, Tanlac has restord my health completely," declared T. W. Wright, of 521 East Eldorado street, Decatur, Ill., for forty years a clerk for the Wabash railroad.

"About twenty years ago my health began to fail, and for eighteen years I was practically an invalid. Everything I ate caused gas to press around my heart and I had to struggle for breath. My kidneys worried me and I had severe pains across my back, and was bloated up all over. My legs got so bent up with rheumatism I almost lost the use of them, and my wife had to help me in and out of my chair. I took almost every kind of medicine that could be mentioned, but kept getting worse until I just gave up entirely.

"A friend of my wife's who is a nurse in training suggested that I try Tanlac, saying it had relieved her brother of a trouble very much like mine. After the second bottle my stomach was better and my legs didn't seem to be so stiff. I have now taken ten bottles of Tanlac and I can eat heartily of anything I want, and nothing ever hurts me. My rheumatism is gone and I am as active on my feet as I ever was in my life. My kidneys are in good condition, and I don't have those pains in my back nor that bloated, puffy condition of my skin. I am a well man, and my astonishing recovery has made such a stir among my neighbors that there is hardly a house around here without a bottle of Tanlac in it."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co. and J. F. Shreve Drug Stores and the leading drug store in every town.—Adv.

BACK FROM ARKANSAS

Mrs. Charles Price and Mrs. Frank Byrns have returned from Pine Bluff, Arkansas, where they went to attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Galbraith. There were three generations present; three children, five grandchildren and death has not entered the family as yet. Many tokens of esteem were received by the worthy couple who have walked together for fifty years and the wish of all was that they may be spared for many years to come.

Mrs. Lilly McClay of White Hall was a city shopper yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Lynn of Carrollton were arrivals in the city yesterday.

Physician Explains Why He Prescribes Nuxated Iron for Run-Down, Anaemic People

Says It Quickly Increases the Strength and Energy of Men and Brings Roses to the Cheeks of Nervous, Run-down Women

Ask the first hundred strong, healthy looking people you meet to what they owe their strength and energy and see how many reply "Nuxated Iron."

Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly Physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), of New York and the Westchester County Hospital says: "Thousands of nervous, run-down, anaemic people suffer from iron deficiency but do not know what to take. There is nothing like organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to quickly enrich the blood, and thereby put roses in the cheeks of women and give men increased strength and energy.

Unlike the older forms of iron, Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach, but is readily assimilated and you can quickly recognize its action by a renewed feeling of buoyant health.

No matter what other iron remedies you have used without success if you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test:

See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired; next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. To be absolutely sure of getting real organic iron and not some form of the metallic variety always ask for Nuxated Iron in its original packages. Nuxated Iron will increase the strength, power and endurance of delicate, nervous, run-down people in two weeks' time in many instances.

Over Four Million People Annually Are Taking Nuxated Iron

MANUFACTURERS' NOTE: Nuxated Iron, which is recommended above is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated and does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. Each tablet of genuine Nuxated Iron is stamped as follows and the words Nuxated Iron are stamped into each bottle, so that the public may not be led into accepting inferior substitutes. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed by all good druggists in tablet form only.

Candidate for Republican Nomination for
COUNTY COMMISSIONER

All my life has been spent in Morgan County and the record, whatever it may be, is open to public inspection.

While now a resident of Jacksonville, because of school advantages, most of my business is conducted in Murrayville.

I am actively engaged in business and hope to keep at work for years to come. However, I can readily devote to the duties of the County Board all necessary time and am ready and willing to serve if the people believe that I can fill the office satisfactorily.

I believe in a continued effort for good roads thru draining and dragging.

A county officer should apply to county business the same interest and discretion that he applies to his private business.

MEMORIAL ADOPTED FOR A. L. FRENCH.

The following memorial of Arthur L. French was adopted by the directors of the Farmers State Bank and Trust company at the regular meeting of the board yesterday:

By the death of Arthur L. French, founder and president of this company, the directors of The Farmers State Bank and Trust company consider that not only has this bank suffered the loss of its president, but that this community has sustained the loss of one of its best and most loyal citizens. Having been intimately associated with Mr. French since the organization of this corporation, we feel that we can perhaps appreciate in greater measure the extent of that loss.

He was born on the Samuel French homestead, near Chapin, in this county, and resided thruout his whole life on the same farm. His chief interests and experiences were, accordingly, those of a farmer and of the occupations and businesses allied with farming. In these he was always alert and progressive, believing, as he did, that agriculture is one of the very foundations of our wealth and prosperity. But public affairs also elicited much of his most thoughtful attention. He was well read and informed in all matters of public interest, so that his views were highly regarded by men in public life. He performed his duties as a public officer of whatever grade, whether as railroad or warehouse commissioner of the state, as school director or as commissioner of the road district in which he lived, with the same even, dignified, unselfish care.

As president of this company, his judgments as a banker were always promptly and fearlessly given and were uniformly sound and conservative, yet he never omitted the opinions and views of his associates to which he always gave full weight and credit. He was invariably just and fair in all his personal relation and dealings with his fellow directors. Tho generally a reserved man, he made and kept many friends, who were strongly attached to him because of his unselfish interest and advice in their business and personal affairs. Many men in this community gratefully acknowledge that but for his strong support and inspiring courage at critical periods, they could not have come thru their several ways successfully. Only his immediate neighbors and most intimate friends could know of the beautiful home life of Mr. French up to the time of the death of his wife, in August 1916, and his faithful personal care for his children since that time.

We desire that the records of this board shall show our appreciation of his strength, his nobility of character, and his business ability and sound judgment, as well as the high quality of his citizenship. To that end the foregoing shall be made a matter of record.

SCIENTISTS FREE CASTOR OIL FROM NAUSEATING TASTE

Remarkable Process Improves Famous Old Family Remedy

Nobody ever dreamed that castor oil could be made tasteless. But the chemists of Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., one of the largest manufacturers of castor oil, tackled the problem and succeeded in perfecting a process by which all nauseating taste is removed. Nothing is put in to disguise the taste. Strength and purity remain the same—a 100% pure castor oil. Curative and soothing qualities remain the same. It's the same good old-fashioned castor oil that your doctor always prescribes, with the disagreeable taste removed. Children take Kellogg's Tastless Castor Oil without knowing it is castor oil. Sold by all good druggists. If you want a castor oil absolutely without nauseating taste, insist on genuine laboratory filled bottles, plainly labelled Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil. Three sizes, 15c, 35c and 65c.—(Adv.)

"ITS AMAZING" SAYS WABASH RAILROAD MAN

"Since My Astonishing Recovery All the Neighbors are Taking Tanlac," Declares T. W. Wright

"After suffering for twenty years and despairing of ever getting well, Tanlac has restord my health completely," declared T. W. Wright, of 521 East Eldorado street, Decatur, Ill., for forty years a clerk for the Wabash railroad.

"About twenty years ago my health began to fail, and for eighteen years I was practically an invalid. Everything I ate caused gas to press around my heart and I had to struggle for breath. My kidneys worried me and I had severe pains across my back, and was bloated up all over. My legs got so bent up with rheumatism I almost lost the use of them, and my wife had to help me in and out of my chair. I took almost every kind of medicine that could be mentioned, but kept getting worse until I just gave up entirely.

"A friend of my wife's who is a nurse in training suggested that I try Tanlac, saying it had relieved her brother of a trouble very much like mine. After the second bottle my stomach was better and my legs didn't seem to be so stiff. I have now taken ten bottles of Tanlac and I can eat heartily of anything I want, and nothing ever hurts me. My rheumatism is gone and I am as active on my feet as I ever was in my life. My kidneys are in good condition, and I don't have those pains in my back nor that bloated, puffy condition of my skin. I am a well man, and my astonishing recovery has made such a stir among my neighbors that there is hardly a house around here without a bottle of Tanlac in it."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co. and J. F. Shreve Drug Stores and the leading drug store in every town.—Adv.

Butter and Eggs via Motor Express

IN addition to over a million farmer-owned automobiles, 18,000 farmer-owned trucks, and approximately 100,000 farm tractors, there are 519 motorized Express Companies doing business in the states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and this number is growing day by day.

Automotive Industries for 1920 declares "Trucks are operating on railroad schedules, and have proved more dependable, on a time basis, than the steam roads have ever been. Their use to replace the freight car for certain classes of freight has proved a marked success."

The Smithsonian Institute, United States National Museum Bulletin 102, says, "In respect to prompt delivery of farm produce, whether to railways or directly to towns, the motor truck has an exceptionally useful opportunity."

It is these motor trucks, tractors and farmer-owned automobiles that are largely increasing gasoline consumption, particularly in the Middle West.

During the first four months of 1920, the production of gasoline increased 13¼%, while during the same period, domestic consumption of gasoline increased 38⅓%. This excess of consumption over production has been a potent factor in the advance of gasoline prices, but the dominant underlying reason has been the increase in the cost of crude oil.

The service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) lies in manufacturing and distributing to the tractor, the truck, and the automobile a dependable supply of gasoline and lubricating oils, and selling them at a fair price. The latest refinery methods are producing a continually increasing percentage of gasoline from each barrel of crude oil. While large-scale production and distribution assure maximum economy in this industry, the savings effected by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) are utilized to hold down gasoline prices despite the rising tide of demand for petroleum products.

A GOOD INDORSEMENT.

The M. E. conference employs Clarence True Wilson to represent the denomination in matters of temperance and when the presidential nomination were made he journeyed to Marion, Ohio, to call on Senator Harding and also to look up the record of that gentleman on the temperance question and he made a fine report to conference.

For twenty years Senator Harding's voice has been heard for the right. He has consistently stood for integrity, temperance and good morals all along. Only once did he vote "wet" and that regarding the District of Columbia when the state of Ohio voted that was and he was simply voicing the will of his constituents.

Mr. Wilson has ever been a prohibitionist and said he had not heretofore voted the Republican ticket but would do so this fall and then, as a clincher remarked, "If W. J. Bryan couldn't vote for Mr. Cox, as he did not in the San Francisco convention who could?"

That remark brought down the house with tremendous applause.

Stephen Ridder traveled from Alexander to the county seat yesterday.

J. E. Simpson of Carrollton made a trip to the city yesterday.

Butter and Eggs via Motor Express

IN addition to over a million farmer-owned automobiles, 18,000 farmer-owned trucks, and approximately 100,000 farm tractors, there are 519 motorized Express Companies doing business in the states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and this number is growing day by day.

Automotive Industries for 1920 declares "Trucks are operating on railroad schedules, and have proved more dependable, on a time basis, than the steam roads have ever been. Their use to replace the freight car for certain classes of freight has proved a marked success."

The Smithsonian Institute, United States National Museum Bulletin 102, says, "In respect to prompt delivery of farm produce, whether to railways or directly to towns, the motor truck has an exceptionally useful opportunity."

It is these motor trucks, tractors and farmer-owned automobiles that are largely increasing gasoline consumption, particularly in the Middle West.

During the first four months of 1920, the production of gasoline increased 13½%, while during the same period, domestic consumption of gasoline increased 38⅓%. This excess of consumption over production has been a potent factor in the advance of gasoline prices, but the dominant underlying reason has been the increase in the cost of crude oil.

The service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) lies in manufacturing and distributing to the tractor, the truck, and the automobile a dependable supply of gasoline and lubricating oils, and selling them at a fair price. The latest refinery methods are producing a continually increasing percentage of gasoline from each barrel of crude oil. While large-scale production and distribution assure maximum economy in this industry, the savings effected by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) are utilized to hold down gasoline prices despite the rising tide of demand for petroleum products.

A GOOD INDORSEMENT.

The M. E. conference employs Clarence True Wilson to represent the denomination in matters of temperance and when the presidential nomination were made he journeyed to Marion, Ohio, to call on Senator Harding and also to look up the record of that gentleman on the temperance question and he made a fine report to conference.

For twenty years Senator Harding's voice has been heard for the right. He has consistently stood for integrity, temperance and good morals all along. Only once did he vote "wet" and that regarding the District of Columbia when the state of Ohio voted that was and he was simply voicing the will of his constituents.

Mr. Wilson has ever been a prohibitionist and said he had not heretofore voted the Republican ticket but would do so this fall and then, as a clincher remarked, "If W. J. Bryan couldn't vote for Mr. Cox, as he did not in the San Francisco convention who could?"

That remark brought down the house with tremendous applause.

Stephen Ridder traveled from Alexander to the county seat yesterday.

J. E. Simpson of Carrollton made a trip to the city yesterday.

LITERBERRY

Rev. W. R. Johnson filled his regular appointment Sunday morning and evening at the Baptist church. The morning sermon was one of the best the reverend gentleman has preached at Literberry, being full of the spirit of Christ. The reading was from the 7th of Mathew. Text. "Narrow is the way that leads to eternal life." Opening question, Can we succeed without being narrow? No. The evening sermon was from this subject that is needed most by the Christians of the present time? Mr. Johnson told his congregation the needs of today in the church is an abiding consciousness of the presence of Christ in the heart. Both the sermons were worth a great deal, and were certainly appreciated by his hearers.

Mrs. Oscar Petefish of Golden Green on East Capitol street had the misfortune last Saturday of receiving a serious cut on her right hand, caused by the bursting of a glass fruit jar, while she was putting on the self-sealing cover; the jar was full of hot tomatoes. Mrs. Petefish now holds her hand in a bandage and watches the other members of the family put up the fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Will White of Arcadia were visitors at W. W. Young's Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beavers and son James Robert of the Zephyrs, will start on Wednesday for a trip to California, to be gone for some time.

Mrs. J. A. Liter was so unfortunate as to receive a very bad bruise on one limb while at the Sunday school convention at Woodson. She was going to her boarding place Thursday night and in the darkness stepped off the sidewalk in such a way as to wrench her limb, which caused her to be so lame, she is still in bed at this writing. Her friends are wishing for her a speedy recovery from this serious accident.

Shall Thompsonism Be Approved Or Rejected?

Are You Awake? Do You Realize Why the Thompson Chicago Machine Wants to Control the State? What Are You Doing About It?

THE CITY OF CHICAGO

Thompsonism has Made Chicago the Most Misgoverned City in America.

Millions at command at start.
Treasury now hopelessly bankrupt.
City's bills paid in script.
Banks refuse to buy certificates.
Heaviest tax in city's history.
Special tax levied on business.
Millions raised in bond issues squandered.
City funds used paying political henchmen.
A political machine for personal benefit.
Respect for all law at low point.
Nearly 200 murders since January 1.
THIS IS THE SAME THOMPSONISM which Theodore Roosevelt denounced in 1918; which was repudiated by the loyal people of the State in the 1918 primary; which presented a socialist platform to the State and National Republican Convention that they rejected.
The American Legion just recently denounced Thompsonism.
Will the people of Illinois now give their approval to disloyalty during the war, to efforts made to break down the morale of the American Army, to socialism, to demonstrated mis-government?

Escaped an Operation

There is nothing in the world a woman so much fears as a surgical operation. Often they are necessary, but often not; and many have been avoided by the timely use of that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you are suffering from some dread ailment peculiar to your sex, why not profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow?

These Two Women Saved from Operations.

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells they would unfit me entirely for my housework. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic ulcers and I would have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how it had helped me years before and I decided to try it again. I took five bottles of Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and since then I have been a well woman, able to take care of my house and family without any trouble or a day's pain. I am ready and thankful to swear by your medicine any time. I am forty-four years old and have not had a day's illness of any kind for three years."—Mrs. H. Koenig, 617 Ellis Blvd, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Sandusky, Ohio.—"After the birth of my baby I had organic trouble. My doctor said it was caused by too heavy lifting and I would have to have an operation. I would not consent to an operation and let it go for over a year, having my sister do my work for me as I was not able to walk. One day my aunt came to see me and told me about your medicine—said it cured her of the same thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and they have cured me. Now I do my own housework, washing and ironing and sewing for my family and also do sewing for other people. I still take a bottle of Vegetable Compound every spring for a tonic. I recommend your medicine to others who have troubles similar to mine and you can use my letter if you wish."—Mrs. Paul Parenfuse, 1325 Stone St., Sandusky, Ohio.

THIS IS THE SAME THOMPSONISM which Theodore Roosevelt denounced in 1918; which was repudiated by the loyal people of the State in the 1918 primary; which presented a socialist platform to the State and National Republican Convention that they rejected.
The American Legion just recently denounced Thompsonism.
Will the people of Illinois now give their approval to disloyalty during the war, to efforts made to break down the morale of the American Army, to socialism, to demonstrated mis-government?

America Sends Three Airplanes of Original American Design to Compete in Races Beginning Sept. 27 in Paris.

New York. — Original American design, high power, small size and greater speed than any recorded aeronautical performance of the past, are features which the designers say are possessed by three airplanes en route to Paris to represent America in the Gordon Bennett Cup races beginning September 27.

Wright, Curtiss and the United States army, all pioneers in the conquest of the air, are the names which will be painted on the fuselages of the three American racers, each chosen for the promise it held out to bring back the trophy which has been in France since 1913.

Upon these three entrants America pins her hope of ever again possessing the coveted cup, which will become the permanent property of France if she wins again this year.

The race will be held at Etampes, near Paris, over a circular course of 300 kilometers (186.3 miles). The prizes include 10,000 francs offered by the French government and the Gordon Bennett Cup, valued at $2,500.

Two of the three American machines are monoplanes, while the army contestant, tho of miniature proportions, is a biplane. All three have been especially designed for the race, including special motors and devices to increase speed and endurance. It is said to be the opinion of flying experts that the winners of this race must make over 200 miles an hour.

In the special Curtiss machine the pilot's seat is far back on the fuselage, two-thirds the distance from nose to tail. The propellor is short and stubby with a streamlined hub. Unusually thick wings are supported on either side by a single thick strut extending to the hub of the landing wheel. The bird cage radiators are slung on either side of the motor. The power plant is a 12-cylinder, 400 horsepower motor.

The chief peculiarities of the Wright entry are the wings, which are of three-ply wood veneer instead of the usual fabric covered frames, and an undercarriage which folds into the fuselage when the machine is in flight, thus reducing wind resistance and resulting in a proportionate increase in speed. The mechanical action necessary to fold up the undercarriage also flattens out the wings into racing form, providing a wide variation between minimum and maximum speeds, the thicker wing being used for landing and taking off. Power is furnisher by a 250 horsepower motor of special design.

The Air Service racer is still something of a mystery. It was designed and built at McCook Field, the army experimental station, by designers of the liberty motor. The motor is of 500 horse power.

Pilots of the three machines are Roland Rohlfs, former holder of the world's altitude record; Captain Rudolph Schroeder, the present title holders and Howard Rinehart.

Daily Market Repo...

ALL GRAIN PRICES COLLAPSED TUESDAY

CHICAGO, Sept. 14. — Grain prices collapsed today largely as a result of acute weakness of sterling exchange, bringing export business apparently to a standstill. The close in wheat was demoralized 7½ to 9½c lower.

Corn lost 4⅛ to 5⅜c and oats 1⅜ to 1¼c. In provisions the outcome varied from 10c decline to 4c advance.

Altho the wheat market had a decided downward swing from the beginning it was not until near the close that values commenced to smash in good earnest. At this juncture extensive holdings thrown into the pit by houses with eastern connections failed to meet any purchase orders than from scattered shorts. The almost complete absence of support made any important rally out of the question for the time being in the face of sterling weakness rains in Argentina and word that on instructions from Europe all seaboard exporters had entirely withdrawn from the market. Shutting down of four corn products manufactories had a depressing effect on the corn market Furthermore rural owners appeared to be liquidating and ignoring any likelihood of frost.

Oats receded with corn.

Provisions were relatively strong owning to higher quotations on hogs.

STOCK MARKET HAD POLITICAL TIN...

NEW YORK, Sept. 14. — ... stock market took on a politi... tinge today, traders and the spe... ulative element generally attri... uting the greater activity and higher prices to the outcome o... the Maine election.

This theory was confirmed to the extent that commission houses with direct connections to important centers of trade and industry reported a moderate revival of public interest in the more representative stocks.

Standard rails were conspicuous in the day's broader inquiry, with secondary or junior transportations and railroad shipments also strengthened substantially with the steel group after early heaviness.

The feature of the railway division was Delaware, Lackawana and Western which registered a gain of slightly more than eight points on rumors that the company's reported plan of segregation is taking shape.

Among the other active and strong rails were western and southwestern issues, trans-continentals and coalers.

Shippings, tobaccos, chemicals and textiles featured the more distinctive specialties with motor accessories, but selling for profits caused irregular reactions in the final dealings. Sales amounted to 475,000 shares.

An interesting side light on current industrial conditions was presented by the suspension of common dividends on Cudahy Packing and National Cloak and Suit. Credit conditions, as expressed in call and time money rates were unchanged but exchange on London and Paris improved slightly.

Aside from liberty issues, which again eased, the bond market, especially internationals was firm.

Total sales par value) $11,600,-0`0.

Daily Market Report

ALL GRAIN PRICES COLLAPSED TUESDAY

CHICAGO, Sept. 14. — Grain prices collapsed today largely as a result of acute weakness of sterling exchange, bringing export business apparently to a standstill. The close in wheat was demoralized 7½ to 9½c lower.

Corn lost 4¼ to 5¼c and oats 1⅛ to 1¼c. In provisions the outcome varied from 10c decline to 4c advance.

Altho the wheat market had a decided downward swing from the beginning it was not until near the close that values commenced to smash in good earnest. At this juncture extensive holdings thrown into the pit by houses with eastern connections failed to meet any purchase orders than from scattered shorts. The almost complete absence of support made any important rally out of the question for the time being in the face of sterling weakness rains in Argentina and word that on instructions from Europe all seaboard exporters had entirely withdrawn from the market. Shutting down of four corn products manufacturies had a depressing effect on the corn market Furthermore rural owners appeared to be liquidating and ignoring any likelihood of frost.

Oats receded with corn.

Provisions were relatively strong owning to higher quotations on hogs.

STOCK MARKET HAD POLITICAL TIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 14. — The stock market took on a politi tinge today, traders and the spe ulative element generally attri uting the greater activity an higher prices to the outcome o the Maine election.

This theory was confirmed to the extent that commission houses with direct connections to important centers of trade and industry reported a moderate revival of public interest in the more representative stocks.

Standard rails were conspicuous in the day's broader inquiry, with secondary or junior transportations and railroad shipments also strengthened substantially with the steel group after early heaviness.

The feature of the railway division was Delaware, Lackawana and Western which registered a gain of slightly more than eight points on rumors that the company's reported plan of segregation is taking shape.

Among the other active and strong rails were western and southwestern issues, trans-continentals and coalers.

Shippings, tobaccos, chemicals and textiles featured the more distinctive specialties with motor accessories, but selling for profits caused irregular reactions in the final dealings. Sales amounted to 475,000 shares.

An interesting side light on current industrial conditions was presented by the suspension of common dividends on Cudahy Packing and National Cloak and Suit. Credit conditions, as expressed in call and time money rates were unchanged but exchange on London and Paris improved slightly.

Aside from liberty issues, which again eased, the bond market, especially internationals was firm.

Total sales par value) $11,600,000.

OHIO AND ILLINOIS PLAY NOVEMBER 20

Buckeyes Will Journey to Champaign to Meet Coach Zuppke's Warriors—This Should be an Interesting Games as Illinois Snatched the Championship From Them in the Last Few Seconds of Play Last Year.

Columbus, Oo., Sept. 11.—Five Western Conference games and two Ohio Conference games are on the football schedule of Ohio State this fall. Only two games will be played away from home—Chicago and Illinois and both in the latter part of the season.

Starting October 22 with Ohio Wesleyan as their opponent, the Buckeyes will follow one of the stiffest schedules in years. The changes from last year's schedule are the absence of Kentucky State and Cincinnati and the addition of Oberlin and Chicago. Oberlin was dropped from Ohio State's list back in 1916 following 128 to 0 defeat administered to them. Superior playing last year and the fact that they shared honors with two other Ohio colleges in titular state championship honors led to their return into the fold of the state universities opponents.

Play Chicago Oct. 3.

When the Buckeyes journey to Chicago for their first game abroad October 30, it will be the first time that any Buckeye football men have met Coach Stagg's warriors on the football field. Athletic officials at the Buckeye institution for several years have attempted to annex Chicago to their string but it was not until last year, after Ohio State had shown on three successive occasions that she was of Western Conference championship caliber, that the signature of Chicago officials was attached to the playing documents.

Purdue, the first Western Conference game of the season, October 16, will be the main attraction of the semi-centennial celebration on the campus that week. Alumni from all sections of the country will attend this contest to witness the workout of their team against Big Ten competition and to attend the various festivities on the campus. One week later, October 23, Wisconsin will be met here. Last year, the Buckeyes won from the Badgers by only a three point margin a field goal in the final quarters, kicked by "Chic" Harley the Buckeye's premier All American halfback.

Michigan for Homecoming.

The annual homecoming will fall to Michigan this year, November 6 and will be played on the Ohio field. Reports emanating from the Wolverine institution indicate strong preparations are being laid by Coach Yost and his horts to retrieve Michigan's lost favor on the gridiron. Last year Ohio State defeated them at Ann Arbor 13 to 3. Michigan and Ohio State are natural rivals and this probably will be one of the hardest fought and most interesting games of the season.

Two weeks (2) later, November 20, Ohio State will travel to Urbana and meet Illinois in the final games of the season. Last year Illinois snatched the championship from the Buckeyes in the final eight seconds of play.

Preparations are already being pushed forward for handling the large crowds that are sure of attending the games on Ohio Field this year. Coincident with the drive over the country for a stadium to accomodate more people here, and more will be erected within the next few weeks. It is estimated that close to 20,000 people will be able to witness the games this fall. The Stadium when completed, is to accomodate more than 60,000 people. It probably will be ready for the opening of the 1921 season.

Ohio Will be Strong.

With the exception of the loss of "Chic" Harley who has completed three years of Western Conference competition and the withdrawal from the university of a couple of linesmen, the team is expected to be practically the same as last years. Developing a couple of ends will be the chief difficulty of Coach Wilce when the season opens, as Flowers and Myers, last years ends are not available. Flowers has left school and it is undetermined whether or not Myers will be able to play this year. McDonald another end of last year graduated. It is quite likely that some of last year's freshmen material will be worked in that position, notably Isabel and possibly Craig.

Pixley, guard on last year's team, will not return to school, that position also remains to be occupied. In the back field somebody will have to be developed to fill "Chic" Harley's shoes, if possible. Hobe Workman of Huntington, W. Va., seems to be a likely candidate for that honor. Workman is said to be one of the best freshmen players at the university in years. He played quarter last year on the freshmen team and repeatedly ripped up the varsity play and made fine open field runs. Stincomb may be shifted to a half in the event Workman is retained at quarter where he played on the yearling squad.

Following are the men of last years squad who are regarded as sure to return to school. Captain Huffman, Spiers, Trott, Nemecel, Slyker, Williams, Stinchcomb, Taylor, Bliss and Myers.

OHIO AND ILLINOIS PLAY NOVEMBER 20

Buckeyes Will Journey to Champaign to Meet Coach Zuppke's Warriors—This Should be an Interesting Games as Illinois Snatched the Championship From Them in the Last Few Seconds of Play Last Year.

Columbus, Oo., Sept. 11.—Five Western Conference games and two Ohio Conference games are on the football schedule of Ohio State this fall. Only two games will be played away from home—Chicago and Illinois and both in the latter part of the season.

Starting October 22 with Ohio Wesleyan as their opponent, the Buckeyes will follow one of the stiffest schedules in years. The changes from last year's schedule are the absence of Kentucky State and Cincinnati and the addition of Oberlin and Chicago. Oberlin was dropped from Ohio State's list back in 1916 following 128 to 0 defeat administered to them. Superior playing last year and the fact that they shared honors with two other Ohio colleges in titular state championship honors led to their return into the fold of the state universities opponents.

Play Chicago Oct. 3.

When the Buckeyes journey to Chicago for their first game abroad October 30, it will be the first time that any Buckeye football men have met Coach Stagg's warriors on the football field. Athletic officials at the Buckeye institution for several years have attempted to annex Chicago to their string but it was not until last year, after Ohio State had shown on three successive occasions that she was of Western Conference championship caliber, that the signature of Chicago officials was attached to the playing documents.

Purdue, the first Western Conference game of the season, October 16, will be the main attraction of the semi-centennial celebration on the campus that week. Alumni from all sections of the country will attend this contest to witness the workout of their team against Big Ten competition and to attend the various festivities on the campus. One week later, October 23, Wisconsin will be met here. Last year, the Buckeyes won from the Badgers by only a three point margin a field goal in the final quarters, kicked by "Chic" Harley the Buckeye's premier All American halfback.

Michigan for Homecoming.

The annual homecoming will fall to Michigan this year, November 6 and will be played on the Ohio field. Reports emanating from the Wolverine institution indicate strong preparations are being laid by Coach Yost and his horts to retrieve Michigan's lost favor on the gridiron. Last year Ohio State defeated them at Ann Arbor 13 to 3. Michigan and Ohio State are natural rivals and this probably will be one of the hardest fought and most interesting games of the season.

Two weeks (2) later, November 20, Ohio State will travel to Urbana and meet Illinois in the final games of the season. Last year Illinois snatched the championship from the Buckeyes in the final eight seconds of play.

Preparations are already being pushed forward for handling the large crowds that are sure of attending the games on Ohio Field this year. Coincident with the drive over the country for a stadium to accomodate more people here, and more will be erected within the next few weeks. It is estimated that close to 20,000 people will be able to witness the games this fall. The Stadium when completed, is to accomodate more than 60,000 people. It probably will be ready for the opening of the 1921 season.

Ohio Will be Strong.

With the exception of the loss of "Chic" Harley who has completed three years of Western Conference competition and the withdrawal from the university of a couple of linesmen, the team is expected to be practically the same as last years. Developing a couple of ends will be the chief difficulty of Coach Wilce when the season opens, as Flowers and Myers, last years ends are not available. Flowers has left school and it is undetermined whether or not Myers will be able to play this year. McDonald another end of last year graduated. It is quite likely that some of last year's freshmen material will be worked in that position, notably Isabel and possibly Craig.

Pixley, guard on last year's team, will not return to school, that position also remains to be occupied. In the back field somebody will have to be developed to fill "Chic" Harley's shoes, if possible. Hobe Workman of Huntington, W. Va., seems to be a likely candidate for that honor. Workman is said to be one of the best freshmen players at the university in years. He played quarter last year on the freshmen team and repeatedly ripped up the varsity play and made fine open field runs. Stincomb may be shifted to a half in the event Workman is retained at quarter where he played on the yearling squad.

Following are the men of last years squad who are regarded as sure to return to school. Captain Huffman, Spiers, Trott, Nemecel, Slyker, Williams, Stinchcomb, Taylor, Bliss and Myers.
